A MARVELLOUS REMEDY
For a Marvellous Age!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The Grand External Remedy.

By the aid of a microscope we see millions of little openings on the surface of our bodies. Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part. Diseases of the Kidneys, Disorders of the liver, affections of the Heart, inflammation of the Lungs, Asthmas, Coughs, and Colds, are by its means effectually cured. Every housewife knows that as this healing Ointment far more readily penetrates through any bone or fleshy part of the living body than the most dangerous inward complaints, that cannot be reached by other means.

Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, and Scorbutic Humors.

No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Sore Head, Scrofula, or Erysipelas, can long withstand its influence. The inventor has travelled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to health.

Bad Legs, Sore Breasts, Wounds and Ulcers.

Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely entirely on the use of this wonderful Ointment, when having to cope with the worst cases of scrofulous sores, ulcers, glandular swellings, and tumors. Professor Holloway has, by command of the Allied Governments, despatched to the hospitals of the East, large shipments of this Ointment, to be used under the direction of the Medical Staff, in the worst cases of wounds. It will cure any ulcer, glandular swelling, stiffness or contraction of the joints, even of 20 years' standing.

Piles and Fistulas.

These and other similar distressing complaints can be effectually cured if the Ointment is well rubbed in over the parts affected, and by otherwise following the printed directions around each pot.

What the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bad Legs	Piles	Sprains
Bad Breasts	Rheumatism	Scalds
Bunions	Salt Rheum	Swelled Glands
Chilblains	Skin Diseases	Stiff Joints
Coco Bay	Sore Legs	Ulcers
Corns	Sore Breasts	Venereal Sores
Chiego-foot	Sore Heads	Wounds of all kinds.
Contracted Joints	Sore Throats
Erysipelas	Sores of all kinds

Sold at the Manufactories of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and 244 Strand, London, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States and the civilized world, in Pots; at 25 cts., 62 cts., and $1 each.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B. Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot.

GREAT
American and Foreign Office, —FOR—
Securing Patents for Inventions.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON.

R. H. EDDY,
76 State Street, opposite Kilby St.,
BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber, late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office under the Act of 1837, is determined to present advantages in applying for patents superior to those offered inventors by others. He has made arrangements, whereby, on application, a preliminary search will be made, and a report furnished by him, in case of failure to procure a patent, and the withdrawal, thereof within thirty days after the report, twenty, as paid back by the Agency, which only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages in securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered by other Agencies. The testimonials below given, show that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber. SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add he has abundant reason to believe, and can show that no other office of the kind are the results for principles so well understood—immense practice of the subscriber during 15 years past, has enabled him to accumulate a collection of specifications and official decisions invaluable to patents. These, besides historical library of legal and mechanical works, and copies of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Specifications, Assignments and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries, prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific questions respecting inventions, and infringements of the same. All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay and expense there saved inventors.

Models of the claims of any patent furnished by the Agency. Assignments recorded at Washington, and secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through agents of the highest character.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"Having purchased the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at said office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. The undersigned, personally acquainted with that capacity, who had business before the Patent Office, and there were introduced to him, found him skilful, faithful, and successful. He is a gentleman of the most strict integrity and honor. He is one of the best Patent Solicitors in the United States, and conversations among inventors that they cannot employ more competent and trustworthy, and while transacting their applications in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

[From the present Commissioner.]

"Washington, D. C., April 17, 1855.—During the time I have held my present office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is therefore well acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most reliable and honorable practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents."

[Copy of a Letter.]
BALTIMORE, Jan. 8, 1856.
Messrs. C. & J. Marshall—Gentlemen. At the request of your Agent in Baltimore, in regard to our opinion and experience of your copper-coated spikes, we, with great pleasure, believe them the best substitute for copper yet introduced, and better fastening for ships, inasmuch as you have the strength of iron with the preservative qualities of copper.
We have used some of your Spikes in old vessels as a substitute for copper, and have had occasion to draw them out a year afterwards, and found them with the coating as firm as when they were driven, and with no appearance of oxidation.
Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) JOHN D. FARDY & BRO.

Singer's Sewing Machines.
ALL PERSONS who desire to obtain full and reliable information respecting SINGER'S SEWING MACHINES—their price, capabilities advantages, sizes, improvements, method of working, means of procuring them, and all other particulars—can do so by applying at our office.
No. 323 Broadway, New York, by letter or in person, for
I. M. SINGER & CO'S GAZETTE
This paper is devoted entirely to the Sewing Machine interest. Copies will be supplied gratis to all interested.
N. B.—The unparalelled success of our Sewing Machines has induced several fraudulent imitations of them, besides numerous infringements of our patents—of which we own sixteen. Suits for the infringement of our patents have recently been decided in our favor in the U. S. Circuit Courts in New York and New Jersey. In these suits the great principle of Holding down the Fabric to be Sewed to the Surface of the Machine, by a yielding pressure, which is used in all Sewing Machines, has been fully established. The Wheeler & Wilson, and the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines are the alleged each infringe three distinct patents owned by us. We have suits against them in behalf of the U. S. Courts, which will soon be tried. We hereby caution the public not to buy any infringing machines, as they can be compelled by law to stop using them, and to pay costs and damages.
☞ Local Agents wanted to make sales of our improved sewing machines. To persons properly qualified for the business, a rare opportunity for profitable and pleasant employment is offered.
New and improved machines exchanged on liberal terms for old machines of every kind.

OFFICE of the Commissioners of Lotteries.—Baltimore, April 18, 1856. The undersigned Commissioners of Lotteries of the State of Maryland, being in receipt daily of letters from various portions of the country, making inquiry as to Lottery Schemes with which the country is flooded, and which purport to be "decided by the Drawings of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries," takes this method to answer all such letters of inquiry, and inform the public that all Lotteries purporting to be decided by the Maryland Drawings are Grand Frauds, that certain parties who style themselves Morris & Co., and pretend to be Managers or Sole Agents for the Grand Charter Lotteries of Maryland, Ohio, are impostors, and said Lottery is fraud, having neither legal or pretumptive existence; and that another fictitious firm, styled Murry & Co., Cleveland, Ohio, are also impostors and all Lotteries whi h they profess to be managers or agents for, are also fraud.
RICHARD FRANCE, of this city, is the Contractor for drawing the Maryland Lotteries. The business is conducted under the firm of R. France & Co., as Managers, and they have no sole agents in the city of Baltimore. There are, however, some forty licensed venders for the State of Maryland, who derive license under him through this Office, to sell tickets in the Maryland Lotteries.

The Criminal Witness.

(CONCLUDED.)

Mrs. Naseby resumed her testimony. She said she entrusted her room to the prisoner's care, and that no one else had access there, but herself. Then she described the missing money, and closed by telling how she had found twenty-five dollars of it in the prisoners trunk. She could swear it was the identical money she had lost, it being two tens and one five dollar bill.

"Mrs. Naseby," said I, "when you first missed your money, had you any reason to believe that the prisoner had taken it?"

"No, sir," she answered.

"Had you ever before detected her in dishonesty?"

"No, sir."

"Should you have thought of searching her trunk had not Nancy Luther advised you and informed you?"

"No, sir."

Mrs. Naseby then left the stand, and Nancy Luther took her place. She came up with a bold look, and upon me she cast a defiant glance, as much as to say, "trap me if you can!" She gave her evidence as follows:

She said on the night when the money was stolen, she saw the prisoner going up stairs, and from the manner in which she went up she suspected all was not right. So she followed her up.

"Elizabeth went into Mrs. Naseby's room and shut the door after her. I stooped down and looked through the key-hole, and saw her of mistress's drawer, I saw her take out the money and, put it in her pocket.—Then she stooped down to pick up the lamp, and as I say that she was coming out I hurried away.

Then she told how she informed her mistress of this and proposed to search the girl's trunk.

I called Mrs. Nasby back to the stand.

"You say that no one, save yourself and the prisoner, had access to your rooms?" said I. "Now could Nancy Luther have entered that room if she wished?"

"Certainly, sir. I meant no one else had any right there."

I saw that Mrs. N., though naturally a hard woman, was somewhat moved by poor Elizabeth's misery.

"Could your cook have known, by any means in your knowledge, where your money was?"

"Yes, sir; for she has often come up to my room when I was there, and I have given her money with which to buy provisions of market men who happened along with their wagons."

"One more question: Have you known of the prisoner's having had any money since this was stolen?"

"No, sir," she answered.

"Had you ever before detected her in dishonesty?"

"No, sir."

"Should you have thought of searching her trunk had not Nancy Luther advised you and informed you?"

"No, sir."

"No, sir; and what's more, the money found in the girl's trunk was the money that Mrs. Naseby lost. You might have known that, if you'd only remember what you hear."

This was said sarcastically, and was intended as a crusher upon the idea that she could have put the money into the prisoner's trunk. However, I was not overcome entirely.

"Will you tell me if you belong in this State?" I asked next.

"I do, sir."

"In what town?"

She hesitated and for a moment that bold look forsook her. But she finally answered.

"I belong in Somers, Montgomery county."

I next turned to Mrs. Naseby:

"Do you ever take a receipt from your girl's when you pay them?" I asked.

"Always," she answered.

"Could you send and get one of them for me?"

"She told the truth, sir, about my payments."

"O, I don't doubt it," I replied, "but ocular proof is the proof for the court room. So, if you can, I wish you would produce the receipts."

She said she would willingly go if the Court said so. The court did say so, and she went. Her dwelling was not far off, and she soon returned, and handed me four receipts, which I took and examined. These were all signed in a strange, straggling hand by the witness.

"Now Nancy Luther," said I, turning to the witness, and speaking in a quick, smart-ling tone, at the same time looking her sternly in the eye. "Please to tell the court and jury, and tell me, too, where you got the seventy-five dollars you sent to your sister in Somerset?"

The witness started as though a volcano had burst at her feet.

She turned pale as death, and every limb shook violently. I waited until the people could see her emotion, and then repeated the question

"I—never—sent—any!" she fairly gasped

"You did," I thundered, for I was excited now.

"I—I didn't," she fairly uttered, grasping the rail for support.

"May it please your Honor, and gentlemen of the jury," I said, as soon as I had looked the witness out of countenance, "I came here to defend a youth who had been arrested for robbing the mail, and in my course of preliminary examination I had access to the letters which had been torn open and rifled of money. When I entered, upon this case, and heard the name of this witness pronounced, I went out and got this letter which I now hold for I remembered to have seen one bearing the signature of Nancy Luther. The latter was taken out of the mail bag and contained seventy five dollars; and by looking at the post-mark you will observe it was mailed on the very next day after the money was taken from Mrs Nasely's drawer. I will read it to you, if you please."

The Court nodded assent, and I read the following, which was without date, save that made by the postmaster's stamp on the outside I give it here verbatim.

"Sister Dorcas I seend you hear seventy five dolers, which I want you to Kepe it for me til I cum hum & cant Kepe it heer coz me afraid it will get stole, do't speke wun word to a living sole bout this coz i dont want nobody to know i have eny muney yu wont wil yu sent first rate deer, only that gurle for nothing & hipe to get rid of her now, yu know i rote yu about her give my luv to awl enquiren frends. this is from your sister til death.

NANCY LUTHER"

"Now, your honor," I said, as I handed him the letter, and also the receipts, "you will see that the letter is directed to Dorcas Luther, Somers, Montgomery county And you will also observe that the same hand wrote that letter and signed those receipts. It is plain how the hundred dollars was disposed of. Seventy-five were in the letter and sent away for safe keeping, while the remaining twenty five were placed in the prisoner's trunk, for the purpose of covering the real criminal Of the tone of the letter I leave you to judge. And now gentlemen of the jury, I commit my case in your hands, only I will ask God, and I know you will also, that an innocent person has been thus strangely saved from ruin and disgrace."

The case was given to the jury immediately following, after examination of the letter They had heard from the witness's own mouth that she had no money of her own, and, without leaving their seats, they returned a verdict of—"Not Guilty."

The youth who had first employed me to defend the prisoner caught me by the hand, but he could not speak plainly. He simply looked at me through his tears for a moment, and then rushed to the far end of the prisoner. He seemed to forget where he was, for he flung his arms around her, and she laid her head upon his bosom and wept aloud.

I will not attempt to describe the scene that followed, but of Nancy Luther had not been arrested for the theft, she would have been obliged to seek the protection of the officers, for the excited people would have surely mauled her, if they had done no more

Next morning, I received a note, handsomely written, in which I was informed that a slight token of gratitude for my efforts in behalf of the friendless, but much loved youth, was enclosed. It was signed "Several Citizens," and contained one hundred dollars. Shortly afterwards the youth came to say "all the money he could raise I simply showered him with the note I had received, and asked him to keep his hard earnings for a wife who, he owned he had intended to make Lizzie Madworth his wife very soon.

Next day I succeeded in conferring my other client from conviction of robbing the mail, and made a considerable hand of the fortunate discovery of the letter which had saved an innocent girl on the day before, in my appeal to the jury, and if I made the finger of Omnipotence was in the work, it was because I sincerely believed that the young man was innocent of a crime, and I am sure they thought so too.

CURIOUS INSTINCT OF PLANTS.—Hooker, in his treatise on the vine, gives a striking exemplification of the instinct of plants. A bone was placed in the strong but dry clay of a vine border The vine sent out a leading or tap root, directly through the bone In its passage through the bone it reached the bone, it entered, and by degrees, with the most delicate fibers, like lace, each one separately in the bone On this luscious and narrow bone would the vine cling as long as any nutriment remained, and then it would search for another bone, and when it found it, it would attach itself to it, and so on, until it reached the ground, and then repeated the operation.

SENATOR SUMNER'S SPEECH.

We commence to-day the publication of a portion of the great Speech of the Hon. Charles Sumner in the U S Senate, delivered on the 19th and 20th of May. We shall give the commencement of the first day's remarks and nearly all of the second day's.

MR PRESIDENT. You are now called to redress a great transgression Seldom in the history of nations has such a question been presented Far seas, army bills, navy bills, land bills, are important and justly occupy your care But these all belong to the course of ordinary legislation As means and instruments only, they are necessarily subordinate to the conservation of Government itself a breath from them, or deny them in greater or less degree, and you will inflict no shock The machinery of Government will continue to move The State will not cease to exist But the whole power of the Government will continue to move if it with the eminent question now before you, involving, as it does, Liberty in a broad territory, and also involving the peace of the whole country without good cause in history forever more Take down your map, Sir! and you will find that the territory of Kansas, more than any other region, occupies the middle spot of North America equally distant from the Atlantic on the east, and the Pacific on the west from the frozen waters of Hudson's Bay on the north, and the tepid Gulf Stream on the south, constituting the precise territorial centre of the whole vast Continent To such advantage of situation on the very highway between two oceans, are added a soil of unsurpassed richness and a fascinating undulating beauty of surface with a healthy, life giving climate calculated to nurture a powerful and generous people, worthy to be a central pivot of American institutions A few short months only have passed since this spacious mediterranean country was open only to the savage, who yet held in its woods and prairies and now it has already drawn to its bosom a population of freemen larger than Athens crowded with in her historic walls, when her sons, under Miltiades, won that immortal victory on the field of Marathon, more than Sparta contained when she sailed forth her devoted children quickened by a modest benediction to return with their shields or on them more than Rome gathered out of her seven hills when, under her kings she commenced that sovereign sway which after ward embraced the whole of the then known world Nor is this all Kansas has already a history, and has become associated with the great names of our country Here, on the very soil, was fought the battle of freedom which arrested the subjugation of the continent Here was the point assailed, where the victorious champions of Freedom first encountered the champions of Slavery, and where the victory was won which secured the general triumph of Freedom Kansas is thus already a monument, and her name will be inseparably associated with the great charter of human rights, which, under the auspices of the Republican party, is soon to be established forever in the National Territories.

Such is the object, and such the importance of the present struggle. Nothing like it has been seen before, and nothing like it can be seen again. Here is the point to which the efforts of the age must be directed, and here the battle must be fought. Other questions may be open to compromise, but this is closed. Other questions may be settled by adjustment, but this admits of no adjustment. Other questions may be decided by the votes of majorities, but this is above the reach of majorities. From Kansas.

Lawrence ransomaded by the Missourians, and burned because the Free Staters would not give up their private arms.

U. S. Troops not allowed to protect the settlers.

CHICAGO, 26th.

The Chicago Tribune publishes an extra, based on intelligence brought by three men direct from Lawrence, stating that a company of 400 mounted Missourians appeared near Lawrence on Wednesday morning inclosed in carriages of various devices, but not bearing banners and stripes.

Before the morning, the Lawrence Committee of Public safety sent a note to the U S Marshal who attended this force, assuring him they would make no resistance to any process he might wish to serve and asking protection for their lives and property. The Marshal made no answer, but sent a deputy marshal, with a posse of ten men, to make his appearance in the city, and summoned the citizens to assist him, arrested G. W. Brown and G. W. Smith, and carried them off without resistance.

Jones subsequently made his appearance with 18 men. He attempted no arrests, but demanded all the public and private arms—giving twenty minutes to accede to the demand, and threatening in case of refusal to storm the city. One field piece was immediately given up. The people refused to surrender that private property. In half an hour, Jones returned with two pieces of artillery, and an overwhelming force, and commenced the work of destruction, by cannonading the Free State Hotel and the office of the Herald of Freedom. The former was burned, and the types and presses of the latter destroyed.

Jennings informant left at 8 o'clock in the morning and when fifteen miles from Lawrence met a great light, and volumes of smoke, in the direction of that city. They have no doubt the city is destroyed.

The messenger, who left Leavenworth just before the departure of the boat, says several men have been killed by the Jones party.

It is feared that Gen. Pomeroy has been hung by the mob.

Gov Robinson is at Lecompton, in the hands of the "authorities." Gov Reeder is supposed to be at a place of safety, and is daily expected here, from Nebraska and Iowa.

The mob have threatened to hang Robinson, Brown and Deisler.

The Free State men are gathering at Topeka, and will make a stand at that point.

Atchison is somewhere in the Territory.

The Capital and Governor are anxious to protect the settlers, but ARE NOT ALLOWED TO LEAVE their quarters.

St. Louis, May 25.

The Lexington, Mo., Express publishes an extra, which was received here to-day, confirming the report of the destruction of Lawrence on Wednesday last.

The account published by the Express, states that after the Marshal had arrested the persons he had writs for, he turned the posse over to Sheriff Jones, whose attempts to make arrests were resisted by the people, who fired on the posse.

Sheriff Jones then commanded and set fire to the printing office and the office of the Herald of Freedom destroying both. When the messenger left, artillery was still firing and the fire was spreading to other portions of the town but up to the time of his departure, but few lives had been lost. This is reported as the testimony of Hutchinson and Hatchiff, two free State men.—The Express is a pro-slavery paper.

The Assault on Mr. Sumner.

The Washington correspondent of the Evening Post wrote yesterday as follows with regard to the assault on Mr. Sumner.

In the House Committee, the minority urged the admission of evidence from Brooks and Keitt, made upon their honor, but the opinion of the majority prevailed, and those gentlemen will be subjected to a secret examination and cross examination under oath. It is expected to prove a deliberate premeditation on the part of Mr Brooks and that Edmundson of Va. and Keitt of South Carolina, as well as others were acquainted at least two days beforehand with the action of their friend. I understand that Brooks admitted by one of them that Brooks announced in their presence two nights in advance of its accomplishment his purpose to take the redress of Senator Butler's alleged grievances into his own hands.

Mr Brooks I am also informed admits that Mr Sumner promptly rose in self defence and inspired not the slightest symptoms of quailing.

The public sentiment of the city is almost unanimous in condemnation of the assault and, especially of the manner in which it was perpetrated.

This morning the Rev. Dr. Pyne the leading Episcopalian clergyman of the city denounced from the pulpit in a sermon the assault in the strongest terms saying although Mr. Aiken a representative from South Carolina, one of his leading pew holders was present, urged as a remedy for such deeds of violence a total exclusion of the perpetrators from all decent society.

Mr. Sumner's health is improving though he is unable to leave his room. Yesterday suppuration commenced in his wounds and he suffered much from fever. To-day he is better, but with symptoms of returning fever. His brother, George Sumner, is with him but his friends are denied access.

One result of this occurrence is to bring knives and revolvers into more general use.—Many northern representatives now go provided with pistols and Congress is now filled with armed men.

WASHINGTON May 26.

The House committee of Investigation waited on Mr. Sumner to-day, and took his testimony with regard to the assault. He was also cross examined. He was in bed during the examination, and has sat up but little since the assault. He is still very weak, and the physicians counsel him not to attempt to go out of the House for a week.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, 26th.

SENATE.—Mr. Pearce stated the Special Committee, to investigate the assault committed on Mr. Sumner, found it impossible to pursue the investigation properly without power to send for persons and papers; and asked that such power be given.—Agreed.

Mr. Weller presented a petition from 75,000 citizens of California, asking for a waggon road to connect California with the United States.—The signatures were bound in two large volumes.

Mr. Weller urged the importance of the measure.

Mr Weller also introduced a bill for the construction of a Military road from the Western boundary of Mobile to Carson Valley, and another for the construction of a Military road from El Paso to Fort Yuma.

Mr. Pugh addressed the Senate on the bill for the admission of Kansas. He objected to the proposition of Mr. Seward, to admit Kansas on her Free State Constitution, because of the small number of her population, not exceeding 21,000, and because the Topeka Constitution was ratified by only seven hundred and nineteen voters.

He pursued a course of argument similar to that of the supporters of Mr. Douglas's bill, and was very severe in his remarks on the Emigrant Aid Societies. He gave reasons why he could not obey the instructions of the Ohio Legislature, and replied to the arguments of Messrs Seward and Sumner.

Mr. Seward introduced a bill to authorize that protection be given to citizens of the United States who may discover deposits of guano. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Bell moved for a suspension of the rules, to enable him to introduce a resolution calling for specific information connected with all the branches of work on the Capitol Office extension. Re said, he wanted the country to see the manner in which the law had been disregarded and the public money wasted. The rules were suspended.

Mr. Ball of Ohio proceeded to show that the Secretary of the Treasury unnecessarily expended large sums of money, letting contracts to the highest instead of the lowest bidder, with a loss of more than one hundred thousand dollars on one of them. Sixteen or seventeen thousand dollars had been spent for machinery to raise stone on the Treasury building, in defiance of the fact that hoisting and setting could be performed by contract.

He made no charge of corruption against Capt. Meigs or the Superintendent, but the latter is spending money unnecessarily on the Capitol and Post Office extension, by making the work too heavy and fine. The resolution passed.

Mr. Kelly of New York obtained permission to print a speech, which he had no opportunity to deliver, maintaining that the Softs composed the true democratic party of New York, and are superior in numbers and nationality to the Hards, who in his opinion are mostly Know Nothing. He avowed his belief that the Soft delegates should be recognized at Cincinnati to the exclusion of the Hards.

Humphrey Marshall, from the Judiciary committee, reported a bill to authorize the patents issued on the final adjudication of California land claims prior to January 1856. Consideration of the bill was postponed two weeks. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, 26.

A rumor was circulated that Mr. Brooks of South Carolina, had challenged Gen. Jas. Watson Webb, but the facts are as follows:—Gen. Quitman to-day was the bearer of a note from Mr. Brooks to Gen. Webb, asking whether he was the author of the article in the Courier and Enquirer on Saturday relative to the assault on Mr. Sumner, to which Gen. Webb replied he had obtained from writing on this subject till Saturday and that the Courier of Tuesday would contain a long letter under his signature from which Mr. Brooks might learn fully his opinions relative to the affair.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 26.

Contributions are being made in Charleston and Columbia for the purpose of getting up a testimonial for presentation to Preston S. Brooks whose course is very generally approved of in that locality.

CINCINNATI, May 26.

The City is filling rapidly with delegates to the Democratic National Convention.

The Delegations from Virginia, Tenn., Miss. La., and Texas are all here.

NEW YORK, May 26.

Arrived Bark N. Boynton of Thomaston, Smalley, from New Orleans, and bound to Marseilles, put in on account of sickness of the Captain. She is anchored at quarantine.

NEW YORK, May 26.

At the opening of the Court this morning Judge Philips senior Counsel for Addison Farnsworth, Chas. A. Walters, Wm. S. Lyster, Andrew J. Morrison, Jno. Creighton and Geo. B. Hall, the alleged filibusters, moved that these persons charged with a violation of the neutrality laws in setting on foot a armed expedition against the territory of Nicaragua be discharged by reason of a failure on the part of the Government to bring the indictment pending against them on for trial.

Mr. McKeon, United States District Attorney stated to the Court that he was unable to procure his witnesses and he was therefore unable to proceed against them. The Court therefore ordered their discharge.

The indignation meeting held at Faneuil Hall, Boston, on Saturday evening was one of the largest gatherings that has been held in the city for years. Over 5000 people were present, and thousands, went away, not being able to obtain admittance.

Gov. Gardiner was President of the meeting, with the following Vice Presidents, comprising prominent men of all parties:

Lieut. Gov. Beechler, Hon. E. C. Baker, Hon. Chas. A. Phelps, Mayor Rice, Hon. Samuel H. Walley, Peleg W. Chandler, Ex Gov. Boutwell, Hon. C. C. Hazewell, Amos A. Lawrence, J. W. Strong resolutions were adopted, of which the following is one.

Resolved, that although sixty eight members of the national House of Representatives have voted that they think no enquiry upon the outrage is necessary, still we feel confident that Congress will free itself from the shame and crime by expelling the offender from the seat which he disgraces.

The following news is not to late to the despatch from Chicago.

FROM KANSAS. A St. Louis despatch of the 22d states that the correspondent of the Democrat, at Leavenworth, writes: Since Messrs. Through Tickets, including transit of the Isthmus, via Panama &c

By order of the Postmaster General, the United States Mail Steamers will hereafter be despatched from New York direct to Aspinwall, on the 5th and 20th of each month.

Passengers are landed at the Railroad Depot, Aspinwall, and conveyed across to the Pacific Steamers without any extra expense. This is the only line giving entire Through Tickets, including meals, on the Isthmus.

Transit made in four hours, entirely by daylight, thus avoiding the great exposure by night in open boats to fever and ague, and 200 miles of dangerous lake and river navigation, over rocks and shoals.

Arrangements have now been completed so that the regular U S Packet Mail Steamer will leave Panama for San Francisco immediately on arrival of the Atlantic Mails and passengers thus securing passengers by the Mail Line a sure and short passage, without any detention on the Isthmus.

☞ Tickets must be signed by one of the Company's Agents before they will be recognized by the Agent of Panama, and Tickets thus signed can be obtained of the only authorized Agent for the Atlantic and Pacific Mail Steamship Companies, in this city. C L. BARTLETT, Agent, from whatever cause they may have originated, and

No Matter of How Long Standing.

This popular and specific remedy is now offered the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the above complaints. It searches out the very roots of the diseases, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure

Certain and Permanent

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and expense to patients This infallible remedy has saved thousands upon thousands from the hands of

Merciless Quacks,

and not from premature graves. In cases of infection, the Compound Buchu is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing

SAFE CURES

It contains no narcotic, mercury, or other injurious drug, but is a purely VEGETABLE COMPOUND It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no disagreeable odor, and may be taken by persons of either sex without hindrance from business or special advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them.

Truth must and will prevail

This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent forms of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the system, restoring the patient to a perfect state of Health and Purity—and as a medicine which must benefit everybody, can be simply delicate to the confined and deserving invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting in all cases as a Cure and Preventive of any of the above complaints.

Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from an Excess of Mercury, exposure and improper use of life, chronic constitutional diseases arising from an improper state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all scaly Eruptions of the Skin

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have proved a patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed, whether in town, country, hospital or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, commending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course differ according to the mode of preparation Which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation, and the employment of different processes in successive operation to take up the active matters, and, in consequence, are often frequently improperly made and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations.

It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public, and to the afflicted, that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantageous To effect this and obviate the evils alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and the Buchu, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition These experiments have resulted most favorably, and to much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are presented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made Two table spoonfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water, equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle of it equals in strength one gallon of Syrup Sarsaparilla or decoction, as usually made

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON

R. H. EDDY,

No, 76 State Street, opposite Exchange St.

BOSTON

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber, late Assistant Examiner in the Patent Office under the Act of 1836, is now permanently established in Boston, and offers his services to the public, as solicitor of patents, &c., on terms as reasonable, and more favorable to inventors, than any other agency in the United States. His long experience in the Patent Office, and his extensive and intimate acquaintance with the best mechanical talent of the country, have enabled him to perfect an arrangement of the business of his agency, which will ensure to his clients the most prompt and faithful attention to their interests, and the most speedy procurement of their patents. Having no connection with any other agency, he will be enabled to devote his whole time and attention to the business entrusted to his care, and to give his clients the benefit of his undivided skill and experience. Inventors who employ him may rely upon it that their business will be done with fidelity, and that their patents will be secured in the shortest possible time, and on the most reasonable terms.

Models of inventions should be sent to the agency by express, addressed to the care of Messrs Hodgman, Carr & Co., and Edwards & Co., Bangor, and will thence be forwarded to Boston free of charge. Models should be of the smallest compass consistent with clearness, and should be neatly made. Where models cannot be sent, accurate drawings, with specifications, will be sufficient. Where models are sent, a duplicate drawing should be furnished, if practicable.

Inventors who have made improvements, and have not yet taken the necessary steps to secure patents, are advised to do so without delay, as the day of their application is the date of their patent, and the first patent is the only one which will be valid. Patents are now granted for fifteen years, for fourteen dollars, instead of seven years, for the former fee of twenty dollars. Caveats are filed, and all necessary papers prepared, on moderate terms. Copies of patents can be had by sending one dollar. Assignments recorded, and Patents procured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through agencies the most respectable in those countries.
